CAMPUS LIFE EXPECTATIONS:

The primary obligation of each student is to live as a responsible member of the campus community. As such, students are challenged to live a life committed to Christ and to the service of others.

In order to promote this kind of campus community, mature actions consistent with scripture are expected of all students. Specific actions and activities that are not permitted at Huntington University on or off campus include sexual relationships outside of marriage; homosexual behavior; use, possession, sale, purchase of alcoholic beverages or illegal drugs and abuse of other drugs; gambling; acts of dishonesty; violations of civil and state laws; and actions which are hazardous, humiliating or dehumanizing to other persons. Activities that are not permitted on campus or at university-sponsored events off campus include the use of tobacco and social dancing. Please note that this list is illustrative of the types of conduct that Huntington University prohibits. A more complete list can be obtained from the Student Development Office.

It is recognized that individuals may differ on these matters and no condemnation is implied by those who take a different view. However, by signing the application for admission, the applicant agrees, upon becoming a student at Huntington University, to be governed by the university's regulations outlined in the HUNTINGTON UNIVERSITY CATALOG and the HUNTINGTON UNIVERSITY STUDENT HANDBOOK.

I certify that all answers given in this application are true, and I agree to comply with the policies, rules and regulations of Huntington University. I also authorize my high school to furnish all academic and personal information requested by Huntington University, and I authorize the university to report my academic progress to my high school. I authorize release of my acceptance for informational purposes.
